Evergreen Environmental Film Night – Evergreen Audubon

2 minutes

The public is invited to join Evergreen Audubon and Evergreen Alliance for Sustainability (EAS+Y) for a screening of A Plastic Ocean, directed by Craig Leeson, on Thursday, March 9 at the Evergreen Audubon Education Center, 29997 Buffalo Park Road (formerly Evergreen Community Church), in Evergreen. A pre-film reception starts at 6 pm; the screening at 7:00 pm. There is no charge for the event.

A Plastic Ocean is an adventure documentary highlighting the effect of our modern day disposable lifestyle on our oceans and ultimately on human health. Filmed in stunning detail at 20 locations around the world, the film captures never-before-seen images of marine life and plastic pollution and introduces the audience to workable technologies and policy solutions that can, if implemented in time, change things for the better. Watch a trailer down below.

In addition, American Psychosis, a short film directed by Amanda Zachem, will also be screened. In American Psychosis, Pulitzer Prize winning journalist, author and activist Chris Hedges discusses modern day consumerism, corporate power, and the effects of living in a culture dominated by illusion.
