Do you ever wish lawmakers heard your concerns about the environment? Contacting your representatives is one of the most impactful ways you can help birds, but it can feel daunting at first. To help you get started, Audubon Rockies and Denver Audubon are hosting a free, online webinar, “Getting Green Laws.” Audubon Colorado Council is also a co-sponsor. Sessions will be held on March 31, from 7 to 8:15 pm, and on April 3, from 10 to 11:15 am.

Our chapter helps support the work of Jen Boulton, Audubon’s lobbyist in Colorado. This is your chance to hear directly from her and to learn how you can make a difference!

Jen will walk participants through strategies for contacting and influencing representatives. She’ll also explain the bills that the Colorado legislature is considering right now that will impact birds and their habitats, and how participants can help shape them.

Don’t miss this unique opportunity to impact the causes you care about!
